need someone who is mature and doesn't want to bring the party home. We keep a quiet place here.24 hr security. Female roommate preferred-Utilities/cable/highspeed wifi still included. Furnished room- My son is 11 years old and we are often out of the house. I work from home but on the computer -- it is very quiet and we keep a peaceful space. The room is very cozy and has been great for students as the location is excellent for nearby schools or Museum fellowships. Easy access via local/express trains at 125th street - west side. St Nicholas park across the street. Windows open to the West allow a lot of natural daylight. A/C covers the entire apartment but not separate a/c in each room

Best friendship isn't a requirement, but someone who likes to chill in th hill in the evenings, cook or order in food, and watch TV together would be lovely. We're tidy adults - not OCD by any means, but we like to entertain in the apartment and so we keep it fairly neat most of the time. You'd also be sharing the space with be sharing the space with our adorable 9-year-old Wheaten Terrier, Harold, who is incredibly friendly, hypoallergenic, and mostly prefers to nap unless he thinks you're going to give him food (please resist his puppy-dog
