I am a 30 year old professional, gay white male. Am very laid back and easy going, looking for the same.The apt. is the top floor of a fourth floor walk up, very cute, exposed brick throughout. The room is unfurnished but the rest of the apt. is completely furnished. Shared bathroom. Utilities, cable and internet included.I am looking for someone who is neat and respectful, well, within the common areas, I could care less what your room looks like. Someone who is also easy going and can have a sense of humor about themselves. That I can feel comfortable with just laying around and watching some mindless TV. I do not smoke and would rather have a non smoker or someone who doesn't mind going outside to smoke.

Are you a clean, professional, quiet roommate looking to move into a big 2-bedroom apartment? If you can commit to one year, can appreciate really bad reality television and you're 420 friendly, then you just might be the perfect roommate! I am a female in my 30s who works in theater/media. The apartment is a large, sunny, 2nd entire floor of building with hardwood floors throughout, a private staircase, office/storage room, living room/dining area and large kitchen with plenty of storage in a 3-apartment building. In-window air conditioners are in both the living room and bedrooms. The Laundromat is less than one minute from the building and it's close to grocery stores and really great fresh produce stores. It's

I am looking for a nice roommate who likes coming home to a HOME. The room for rent is big by New York Standards. The apartment is the entire floor of the building- so there is PLENTY of space, I've lived here for 4 and a half years and love the apartment. I have a great relationship with the owner of the building- I am actually doing some cosmetic changes to the apartment and enjoy bettering the space. It is in a GREAT neighborhood Right on Broadway (VERY NEIGHBORHOODY)- the apartment is located 20 feet from the N/W train- takes only 5 minutes to get to midtown. Even late night cabs home are cheap (I have friends who live on the UES who pay more to get home) Locally there is a huge movie theatre, applebees, uno, starbucks, grocery stores,
